"Your memoir is an inspiring story of heartbreak, life-altering shock, and then redemption, brought to a powerful, satisfying close with clear, life-affirming lessons." - David F.

Sophia Satyana tells the true story of her husband's sudden death at age fifty-six years old and the shocking story that unfolded of the secret life he had been living all along during their twenty-one-year-marriage. Unraveling the clues from emails and other computer findings, telephone and credit card records; other important documents such as the deed to their home and the title to their car, and a suspicious, over friendly co-worker reveal a less than perfect husband. Her husband had hidden a desperate sexual addiction, a deviant double personality, together with a 6 year office affair, unknown and known debt her husband left her, and many hundreds of thousands of dollars left "unaccounted for". Sophia had to pay off the debt, sell the home, and everything in it to move forward with her life.

This is a riveting story of love and loss, of trust betrayed, of light and dark energies, all at play in a seemingly happy marriage. It is a story about healing the dark night of the soul that happens when your heart is shattered.
